I guess I wasn't the only one wondering why the @AP had photographers embedded with the terrorists on 10/7?

Important expose by @honestreporting: Photographers working for AP, CNN, NYT, and Reuters were EMBEDDED with Hamas on 10/7 and accompanied the terrorist group into Israel. They knew the attack was coming, and participated in it....
Show more

That photo looks staged and the "terrorists" haven't even covered their faces.

Were they journalists? Or Jihadists? Or government employees on a film set? Is any of this real? How can we tell?

Associated Press once shared an office space with Hamas! See the article below. How on earth does that work when Hamas is demonised as terrorist organisation in the West?

"Honest Reporting is out with an absolute bombshell of a story, revealing today that Gaza-based employees of the Associated Press (AP) and Reuters, who also do contract work for CNN and The New York Times, were embedded with Hamas during their killing spree across southern Israel.

Scoop: What were @AP, @Reuters, @CNN & @nytimes Gaza freelance photographers doing inside Israel on October 7? Coincidence or were they part of the plan?

The report asks many compelling questions:

What were they doing there so early on what would ordinarily have been a quiet Saturday morning? Was it coordinated with Hamas? Did the respectable wire services, which published their photos, approve of their presence inside enemy territory, together with the terrorist infiltrators? Did the photojournalists who freelance for other media, like CNN and The New York Times, notify these outlets? Judging from the pictures of lynching, kidnapping and storming of an Israeli kibbutz, it seems like the border has been breached not only physically, but also journalistically.

It seems plausible that these “journalists” had advance knowledge of the attack and did nothing to warn authorities of the planned massacre. Not only that, the photos and videos of that horrific day show that these photojournalists were embedded with Hamas without any apparel that identifies them as press.

The report even documents that one of the men, Hassan Eslaiah, who works for AP and CNN, deleted evidence of his involvement in the assault, in which Eslaiah was dressed in plainclothes.

On X.com, a photo surfaced this evening of Eslaiah embracing Yahya Sinwar, the highest ranking Hamas official in Gaza. Sinwar has been convicted of committing several murders and acts of terrorism welcome old friends and newcomers to a very enjoyable and memorable event. We are already already working on the next AV events. If you didn't make it to AV13 we now have the presentations up on the AV website. Regards and best wishes.

In the hours following our expose, new material is still coming to light concerning Gazan freelance journalist Hassan Eslaih whom both AP & CNN used on Oct. 7.

Here he is pictured with Hamas leader and mastermind of the Oct. 7 massacre, Yahya Sinwar.

While Reuters is based in London, The Associated Press, CNN, and The New York Times are all headquartered in the United States, where it is illegal to provide material support to Hamas, because the jihadist group is listed as a Foreign Terrorist Organization.

The AP, for its part, has long had disturbingly cozy ties with Hamas in Gaza, having once shared an office space with the intelligence services of the jihadi group. Israeli forces demolished the building in 2021, sparking outrage with the usual suspects in the corporate media.

Now, it's certainly worth wondering whether these corporate media outfits could be implicated"

Say no more. There used to be many news agencies in the US. Now there are two. AP and Reuters. Reuters owns Associated Press, and the Rothschilds own Reuters.

You live and learn, thanks Ian. I knew that they owned Reuters, but not that Reuters owns AP. Talk about a monopoly!

Of course they own 80+% of Israeli land too and pretty well everything else there. Certainly including every politician. And they are the top war generators/controllers of modern times. So this war is likely as real as all of their others, ie not real at all. Other than for it's many helpless victims of course, the physical destruction certainly looks real

But I don't really buy any of the media stuff, there is no way of knowing what is real. Particularly so given that 100% monopoly of media feeds. They can say what they want and they can falsify any image

But I do wonder what their gameplan is. Have they decided to takedown Israel? It's a definite possibility given that the Israeli civilian army is not capable of fighting a long ground war. Even against Hamas, never mind Hezbollah etc. I don't see the rest of the west sending their woke , pussified, armies there either. Too many body bags would result. Time will tell I suppose
